Models must be 16 or older. If your model is under 16 you will need to provide a letter of consent from a guardian.

I understand that this competition will have a finalist selection process and my garment may not be included in the final fashion show on 27th of August. Entry fees will not be refunded if it is not included in the final show.

If you supply your own model you will need to dress him/her for the fashion show and work with Steven Ball on coordinating the show. You will both need to be on-time and well prepared or you will be disqualified. If you work back stage you do not need to buy a ticket- if you are in the audience you need to purchase a ticket.

If your garment is of a very fragile nature and is not likely to withstand the rigours of a fashion show—you will need to take into account that it may be damaged and the organisers will not be responsible for repair or replacement. Care will be taken but these shows are high speed and the garment needs to be robust enough to function.

Any garments that present possible injury risk to the wearer or the audience will not be selected so please insure that it is well finished and hasn't got sharp dangerous protrusions or any other hazardous fixtures.

Models must be adequately covered as nudity won't be allowed in this show. If your garment doesn't cover well you must supply under garments that provide decent coverage where needed—try to make this work with your design.

The judges reserve the right to select any garments they choose without explanation. Correspondence in regards to selection will not be entered into by the organisers.

This show is coordinated and choreographed by professionals - therefore the models will wear the garments as per instruction from the choreographer and not that of the entrant—you can provide guidance but the final decision is with the choreographer. You may be disqualified if you do not comply with instructions.
